PARTS OF SPEECH: PRONOUNS

Circle any reflexive pronouns:

3. The children played by themselves in the walkway leading to their apartment.

PARTS OF SPEECH: VERBS

Linking verbs do not show action. However, some verbs can serve as an action verb or as a linking verb.

Hint: In deciding if a verb is action or linking, try placing is, am, are, was, or were in its place. If it doesn't change the sentence meaning, it's usually linking.

Example: You appear very angry. (Appear is a linking verb here.)

Write LV if the verb is linking and AV if the verb is action:

4. A. _____ She looked into the refrigerator for a snack.
B. _____ She looks pretty in her new long dress.

SENTENCE COMBINING:

5. Alicia is meeting new clients on Monday morning.
Alicia has to fly to North Dakota for a conference after that.
