Name		PAST PARTICIPLE CONSTRUCTION
Date		-
The past participle	form used as a describing v	word (verbal) can be placed before the noun it describes.
Example:	to damage =	(had) damaged
		a damaged automobile
The verbal can also	be placed at the beginning	g of a sentence. The pattern becomes:
past participle form	(verbal) + a comma + the	e subject (noun described) + rest of the sentence.
Example: a damaged automobile
	Damaged , the au	utomobile was worth much less.
	past participle	subject rest of sentence
	888	8 8
Directions: Write the past participle of each verb in the first blank. Then, write that same word in the next blank. Be sure to read the second sentence.
Example:	to list
	a listed numbe	er
	Listed , the number w	was easily found in the telephone book
1. to comb
	hair
	, his hair loo	oked sharp.