

DAY 160

CAPITALIZATION:

1. at thirty-one, jacqueline, wife of democrat john f. kennedy, was the second youngest wife to live in the famed house on pennsylvania avenue.

PUNCTUATION:

Use ellipses and other needed punctuation.

2. Never make a defense before you be accused said King Charles I a British monarch
-

ANALOGIES:

Circle the word that best completes the analogy.

3. flattery : harassment :: levity : _____
a) solemnity b) amusement c) kindness d) destruction

SIMPLE SENTENCES/COMPOUND SENTENCES/COMPLEX SENTENCES:

Remember: A simple sentence contains an independent clause that expresses a complete thought.

A compound sentence contains two or more complete thoughts. Each thought can stand alone as a sentence.

A compound-complex sentence contains two or more complete thoughts; each thought can stand alone as a sentence. It also contains one or more dependent clauses.

Write SS if the sentence is simple, CS if the sentence is compound, and CCX if the sentence is compound-complex.

4. a. _____ Several stood in line, but many walked away.
b. _____ In order to maintain her gym membership, she had to work a second job.
c. _____ You may go to the movies, but you may not stay out late unless you call home.

SENTENCE COMBINING:

5. The restaurant owners offered a free appetizer to stimulate business.
The offer failed.
The owners offered a one-half discount for lunches.
The offer stimulated business.
-
-